

Returns

Customer satisfaction is very important to us at Gloves Up LLC and we are happy to accept returns and exchanges if the product is not satisfactory or is defective in any way. The item must be returned in the gift bag it was delivered in. We reserve the right to deny any returns or exchanges if the item does not meet our requirements and we are not responsible for lost items. When we receive your returned item, we will process your return and credit your account.